

BESPOKE TRAINING

Orange Tree Theatre

Are you looking for an unusual, fun and highly effective skills-development experience for you or your team?

The Orange Tree Theatre is one of London's leading theatre producers; our business is to communicate often-complex stories, to an ever-changing audience, by working seamlessly as a team and enabling every team member to shine.

We are now offering you the opportunity to benefit from this expertise through a bespoke training package built around the needs of you and your team.

Whether you are looking to improve communication, team building or want to explore in-the-round presenting, each session offers an extraordinary and fun way to develop your skills. Led by professional theatre-makers, sessions take place on-stage, in the OT's unique auditorium.

Want to make it extra special?

For an away day like no other, combine your training session with tickets to the show and an exclusive pre-show reception.

It was a great session, and the team really enjoyed it. I think they will remember this for a long time.

A great programme, with flawless execution.
